SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years per count, to be served concurrently.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the Defendant is released within seventy-two (72) hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance. Mandatory drug testing is waived in this matter.

Pursuant to Public Law 108-405, Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004, the defendant shall submit to DNA collection while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not use or possess a firearm, ammunition, dangerous weapons or destructive device. Supervised release shall be revoked for possession of a firearm.

The defendant shall make special assessment, fine and restitution payments as ordered by the Court and is required to notify the Court, through the Probation Office, of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to meet these monetary obligations.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court (set forth on the following page). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not incur any new debt or credit without permission of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall provide full financial disclosure to the U.S. Probation Officer, including detailed documentation of income and expenses.

The defendant shall cooperate with the Internal Revenue Service and file tax returns timely and lawfully pay any back taxes, penalty and interest as determined by the Internal Revenue Service, and provide copies of tax returns to his U.S. Probation Officer.

Any employment shall be subject to the prior approval of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. A computer is defined at 18 U.S.C. 1030(e) and includes, but is not limited to, traditional computers (Apple/Linux-based machines), cell phones, tablets, gaming machines and related accessories. If a computer is searched, the defendant agrees the equipment may be removed for thorough inspection or investigation.

The defendant shall complete a mental health evaluation and complete any recommendations as directed, including the use of prescription medications as recommended.

The defendant shall participate in a cognitive-behavioral treatment regimen that may include, but is not limited to, Moral Reconation Therapy, Cognitive Thinking, Thinking for a Change, or Interactive Journaling. He shall actively participate in treatment until successfully discharged or until the U.S. Probation Officer has excused the defendant from the treatment regimen.
